Our last Meeting of the Year Member's tree critique with Elle Nieto-Brodnick

We'll close the years Visiting Artist program with a very talented artist from Chicago, Elle Nieto-Brodnick. Even though she's only been doing bonsai for a relatively short time, her natural talent, thirst for knowledge and passion for bonsai has created an artist that is way beyond the short amount of time she's been practicing. She has studied extensively in four years with some of the finest teachers available- Ryan Neil, Bjorn Bornholm and Mauro Stemberger in particular and has absorbed all they put out like a sponge. She has been teaching locally in the Midwest and has worked assisting her teachers and is now ready to share her knowledge and passion with us and the world through the CBS live stream program.

This will be a critique of members trees. If you'd like to bring a tree please contact David Melitz to sign up. Call or text him at 949-337-2334 or email him at dmelitz@uci.edu
